FIRESTONE BEATS ROSEBEN.

GREAT SPRINTER DOES NOT SHOW HIS USUAL DASH AND SUCCUMBS READILY.

Only One Winning Favorite at Oakland-McCarthy Rides Unluckily-Heavy Entries to Stakes

for Two-Year-Olds.

San Francisco, Cal., December 14.—Roseben's defeat at seven furlongs was a sensational incident of the racing at Oakland today. At even weights Thomas H. Williams' Firestone took the champion sprinter's measure with such decisive case as to evoke wondering comment on the part of the big throng of spectators present. The conditions of the race enabled Roseben to get in at 107 pounds. This fact was not realized by the owners of the other four. Firestone, Hambridge, Royai Tourist and Clamor, until too late. Scratching being impossible under the rules, they were compelled to start, but none of them had the remotest idea of success. Firestone was believed to be short of work, while the others were hopelessly outclassed. The race therefore was conceded to be a gift for Davy Johnson's big gelding. The ring held him at the prohibitive odds of 1 to 5 on and Firestone was quoted at 15 to 1. In the actual running the favorite lacked the dash and speed shown in recent races. He dwelt at the start, falled to draw out with his usual irresistible rush and it took him some time to head Hanbridge in running up the backstretch. The lead he established in the third quarter was of such brief duration that Firestone was already beginning to be acclaimed the probable winner. As a matter of fact "The Big Train" had a hard time of it to beat Hanbridge through the stretch for second place. Roseben has come to be regarded as practically invincible hereabouts and his defeat of this afternoon was a great surprise to the local race-going public. Firestone's effort on this occasion was particularly birlliant, however, and but for Hanbridge's close proximity throughout, Roseben's race might have been accepted as this season's true form.

The best Monday card of the season was provided, a number of conspicuously good horses being engaged in the various races. The race next in importance to that just referred to was the last, in which eight superior-class spiniers faced the starter. It was captured by the Forsythe filly, Twilight Queen, in con

CLOSE FINISHES AT SANTA ANITA.

Bucket Brigade Defeats Alma Dufour by Inches-Director Rewards Heavy Backing.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 14.—The card today, although of mediocre quality, was redeemed in a measure by a few close and stirring finishes, one in particular, that of the fourth race, being so close that only the judges were in a position to declare the result accurately. In this race Alma Dufour loomed up like the winner when a sixteenth out, and appeared to have Bucket Brizade thoroughly bearten, but in the closing strides faltered slightly, losing the race by a short head. Bucket Brigade was neglected in the betting, First Peep and Redgauntlet being almost equal choices when the field was called to the post. The last named ran a dull race, but First Peep showed prominently until an eighth out, where she gradually faded away.

Director, the winner of the last race, was one of the best backed horses of the meeting. He opened at 7 to 10, but when the odds soared to 6 to 5 the money poured in on him heavily and he went to the post at even money. He won on his own courage in a sharp sixteenth drive with Frontenac. It was reported around the track that Director was heavily backed in all the big poolrooms throughout the country.

Goldway, the favorite in the fifth race, had to be backed in all the oig positions.

Goldway, the favorite in the fifth race, had to be much the best to win. He was knocked clear out of his stride at the start and had to go around the others on the backstretch for a clear course. In the final sixteenth, however, he overhauled and wore Arcourt down.

The betting was very heavy throughout the day, the bookmakers having much the worst of the executation.

The betting was very heavy throughout the day, the bookmakers having much the worst of the speculation.

Among the latest arrivals are J. J. Rogers from New York and Harry McKenna from San Francisco, Jockey Archibald was fined $50 by starter Holtman for disobedience at the post in the fifth race.

ENGLAND'S LEADING TWELVE JOCKEYS.

ENGLAND'S LEADING TWELVE JOCKEYS.

With the English flat racing of this year at an end, the leading turf newspapers are replete with the year's statistics, among which Sporting Life gives the following readable sketch of the riding celebrities of the year:

D. Maher, who now heads the list for the first time, is an American, born at Hartford, Conn. He came to England in September, 1900, winning on his first mount. He won three Derbys and nearly every race of importance in this country, and in all has carried off 855 races here. Rides for the Hon. G. Lambton's and Blackwell's stables, but is likely to be up on Bayardo for the Derby next year.

F. Wootton is a son of the Epsom trainer, R. Wootton, who came to England from Australia in the autumn of 1906, after a stay in South Africa. Little Wootton is not yet fifteen years old, but has ridden 183 winners already in this country. Would doubtless have been at top this season but for being suspended for a month. Rides for Lord Durham, who has first claim, Lord Carnarvon and other well-known owners.

W. Higgs headed the list of 1906 and 1907. Formerly a successful rider in Ireland, his chief employer there, Mr. J. C. Sullivan, inducing him to take up permanent residence in England, with the happiest results. Is first jockey to the Beckhampton Stable, but always places his services at Mr. Sullivan's disposal whenever wanted.

O. Madden, who was born in Germany, was introduced as a jockey by R. Marsh, the king's trainer. Headed the list of winning jockeys four times, Formerly rode for A. Taylor's Manton Stable, but is now first jockey to Mr. Leopold de Rothschild.

C. Trigg, formerly apprenticed to Mr. G. Thursby, rode a large number of winners for that gentleman and others, and has twice performed the feat of riding five winners in one afternoon. On the termination of his apprenticeship, became associated with Mr. C. Hibbert's horses, but now holds a retainer as first jockey to the powerful Manton Stable.

W. Halsey was formerly a rider and trainer under National Hunt to S. G. Pickering, at Newmarket, and during that time rode a large number of winners. Retained in 1907 by the patrons of W. T. Robinson's Foxbill Stable, and will, it is understood, be attached to the same establishment next year.

B. Dillon hails from the Emerald Isle, but has ridden in England for several years. Formerly attached to the Netheravon Stable, but now rides chiefly for Mr. Gilpin's patrons. Is a first-class jockey, but increasing weight restricts his choice of mounts somewhat.

H. Randall rode as an amateur for some years prior to 1902, when he became a professional. Is a son of Sir Henry Randall, the well-known Northampton sportsman, and rode the famous Sceptre in most of her races. Until this year has been chiefly associated with two Wantage stables, those of E. Robson and C. Morton, the latter trainer to Mr. J. B. Joel. This year has had a retainer from Mr. Joel's brother, Mr. S. B., whose horses are trained at Newmarket by C. Peck.

F. Fox is apprenticed to F. Pratt, at Wantage, Rode four winners in succession on one day at Lanark in September and has enjoyed a remarkable run of luck in the chief autumn handicans.

R. Keeble is also an apprentice, his master being T. Jennings, of Newmarket. Has only been riding two seasons, but has risen rapidly and his services are now in great request.

GENTLEMAN RIDER'S LICENSE REVOKED.

DESTRUCTION WROUGHT BY HUGHES.

New York, December 14.—Official figures which have been filed with the state comptroller at Albany by John S. Shea, supervisor of racing accounts, show just how the Hart-Agnew anti-betting law has affected the turf in the State of New York. In 1907 the five per cent, tax on the receipts of all racing associations operating in the state under the control of the Jockey Club amounted to $246,429.16, or within $3,270.84 of the $250,000 appropriated by the legislature last spring for the benefit of the county and town fairs. For the season which closed last November the tax amounted to $77,466.84. If the legislature should again appropriate $250,000 for prizes at these fairs, the amount needed from the state treasury would be $172,553.16. The difference between the tax item of last season and that of 1907 is $168,962.32. This report is of unusual interest to the turf world, as it shows that as compared with 1907 there was a loss in revenues to the different racing associations of $3,339,246.49. From estimates gathered elsewhere it is shown that the falling pff in the value of the purses competed for was $1,027,101. The tax for this year is the lowest since the season of 1897, and it would probably have been less had it not been for the fact that the Hart-Agnew law did not go into effect until June 12. New York, December 14.—Official figures ably have been less had it not been for that the Hart-Agnew law did not go into effect until June 12.

It was reported recently that the racing associations would refuse to pay the state tax this year on the ground that the clause in the racing law which authorized its collection is unconstitutional. Several members of the Jockey Club have repeatedly asserted that when the exclusive penalty provided for in the Percy-Gray law was repealed by the passage of the Hart-Agnew bill, the tax clause should have been repealed too, particularly in view of the special appropriation of $250,000 ordered by the legislature. All of the racing associations are bonded and if they refuse to pay the tax for the recent season it will be up to the bond companies to carry the matter to the highest court, it is said. The Jockey Club's attorneys have maintained all along that the $250,000 appropriation is unconstitutional, so that it looks as if there would be a big legal fight in relation to this particular point. If, as a result of such a fight, the $250,000 appropriation should be declared illegal, the race track lawyers say that the fairs would be wiped out of existence.

INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT SAN ANTONIO.

San Antonio, Tex., December 14.—There was an increase over the opening day's attendance, but the betting this afternoon was rather light, due to a limited knowledge of the horses' form and the poor track conditions.

There will be several absentees from the layers' ranks tomorrow because of losses and meager speculation. The victories of Parvo and Itan, respectively, in the fourth and fifth races, were extremely costly to the bookmakers. Jockey Pickens, who arrived this morning from Cincinnati, had the mount on the former.

After George H. White's victory in the closing race he was bid up $200 over his entered price of $200 and bought by J. E. Gibson.

Dr. Downie, one of the starters in the opening race, furnished some excitement by bolting on one of the turns during the running, and caused jockey Speed to fall over the outer fence. He was unburt.

riung live winners in one afternoon. On the termination of his apprenticeship, became associated with Mr. C. Hibbert's horses, but now holds a retainer as first jockey to the powerful Manton Stable.

W. Halsey was formerly a rider and trainer under National Hunt Rules, and rode Pan when that horse was second for the Grand National. During recent years has confined himself entirely to racing on the flat, and has on several occasions had over 100 winning mounts. Rides as first jockey to Sir Ernest Cassel.

William Griggs served his apprenticeship with R. Sherwood. at Newmarket, subsequently riding for Lord Durham. In 1907 and 1908 has acted as first jockey to Sir Robert Jardine, by whom he is again retained for next season.

W. Saxby, who was born in India, was apprenticed

Winner—B. f, by Canopus—Nell Preston (trained by J. Robertson).

Went to post at 2:57. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Sally Preston, off forwardly, moved up after entering the homestretch and, catching Halifax tiring, deew away into an easy lead. Roseburg II., crowded back at the start, closed a big gap and, finishing gamely, outstayed Halifax. The latter outbroke the others, but was unable to open up his usual big gap. There was much interference during the race.

Winner—B. f, by Mazagan—Rescue (trained by E. Trotter).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Miss Mazzoni made up ground steadily in the early running and wore the leader down in a long stretch drive. Gambrinus, from a slow start, went wide on the first turn and made a premature fast move into the lead in the third quarter and succumbed in the final strides. Standover set the pace for half of the journey and held on into a game third. Colonel Bronston tired after prominent contention for six furlongs. Wooden loomed up on the far turn, but tired in the stretch and is improving. Confederate quit after being well up in the early running and was heavily bandaged. The Captain closed an immense gap. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—78541 Eckersall, 114; 78520 Lord Rossington, 106; 78537 King Brush, 111.

LENGTH OF TEXAS TRACKS.

None of the tracks over which running racing is conducted in Texas is a full mile and all were originally laid out for speed contests at fairs. Aballas there are two courses, one a full mile and the other 165 yards short of that distance. The Fort Worth track is five furlongs long and the San Antonio track three-quarters of a mile. Those at Houston, Beaumont and Waco are half-mile courses. Protected racing seems so popular in the Lone Star State that it is reasonable to conclude that full mile tracks will take the place of the present shorter ones before many years roll by.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A. J. Stafford has arrived a a string of horses from Los t El Paso, Texas, with Angeles.

Jockey W. Knapp is one of the latest arrivals on the coast and has hopes of being able to ride soon. eorge Walker is investing the money which he ned as trainer for the Weinberg stable of Ger-ny, in Memphis real estate.

Sewell, the star of the El Nido Stable, has been quite a disappointment to his many admirers. But he is not a sound horse and unsound horses are generally disappointing.

generally disappointing.

Bad weather on the coast has seemingly affected the condition of Horace Egbert, associate judge at Oakland, and he has not been able to venture from his home for several days.

Starter Holtman, now officiating at Santa Anita Park, has placed Pedro, Edwin T. Fryer and Mike Jordan on the schooling list on account of their unruly behavior at the post.

Tod Sloan, once the premier jockey of the American and English turf, sailed for France Saturday, and will locate permanently in Paris, where he will conduct a large cafe according to American customs.

There is some talk of a six-days meeting at Montgomery Park at Memphis next spring with the idea of testing the betless meeting proposition in accordance with the anti-betting laws of the state Twenty-one thoroughbred horses belonging to Rome Respess stampeded from his farm in Woodlawn, Ohio, last Saturday, and considerable fear was en-tertained for their safety before they were finally headed off at the Glenview Stock Farm in Glendale.

Jockey Joe Notter will go to California, where he will ride for C. R. Ellison, commencing Christmas Day with a mount on Royal Tourist in the Christmas Handicap. Notter will ride on the coast until February 15, when he will return to New York and sail for Germany about March 1.

Harry Smith, the once popular jockey, who has been on the ground for some time under suspension, will shortly petition the stewards of the Pacific Jockey Club for reinstatement. Smith is engaged in other business at the present time, and his conduct has been such that his friends think that his chances for being restored to good standing are the best.

Billy Bowlegs, after forward pursuit from the start, drew out on the turn and gamely maintained his lead to the end, but was lucky. Gene Russell, away slowly and crowded out on the far turn, closed a big gap In the last quarter and just failed to get up in a fast final-rush. Emma G. ran in nearest pursuit in the inside deep going and was anchored finally. Deneen, nearly left, closed an immense gap in a cracking effort. St. Avon, away poorly, closed up steadily under a bad ride. Boss. from a flying start, set the pace to the stretch and quit badly. Abraham was well up early, but tired. Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Twilight Queen, from an outside slow start, was outpaced for the first quarter, then closed an immense gap and won off and pulling up. Ocean Shore ran in forward contention throughout and is extra good. If acounter set the pace to the stretch and tired, probably was short and is extra good. Creation, from a slow start, was badly messed about, pulling up frequently and never dangerous. Cloudlight ran in early and prominent contention for a half mile and tired. Early Tide showed speed and was palpably short. Dr. Mayer, away poorly, finished well up.
